○ Weekly Summary (Short summary about what you did this week)

So far our group has met a number of times in smaller groups. We have discussed a rough outline of the project, and have outlined major tasks and responsibilities on the project. We have been dealing with some difficulties brought on by group size, and can, as of this writing, still not pin down a definite list of who is in the group. Specifically we have heard through the grapevine that Brendan has switched to the MICROCARD team, but have not been able to independently corroborate those reports, or get in touch with Brendan to discuss his present situation.

We have also had a failure of communication with respect to getting regular meeting times set up, so we have yet to fall into a regular meeting schedule.

○ Summary of weekly advisor meeting (if applicable/optional)

Antonio has spoken with Alan Wagstaff at IBM a number of times this semester and IBM is working on finalizing the project description and parameters right now, pending sign off from their legal team. The IBM legal team should be sending through a finalized description of the project parameters.
